

Ralph Gregg Memorial Scholarship
West Sioux Educational Foundation

Vision Statement:

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide resources to equip the next generation to make a lasting impact on both the local community of Hawarden and the local school system, West Sioux Community Schools, in honor of both Ralph and Helen Gregg.

Scholarship Vision:

The Ralph Gregg Memorial Scholarship will be presented annually to one student upon graduation at West Sioux Community Schools. Interested students will submit an application and 500 word essay summarizing their contributions and personal achievements while attending West Sioux Community Schools. The scholarship will be awarded to the graduate who exemplifies and lives out the overall legacy of Ralph Gregg using the following benchmarks:

- Love of music and achievement in music performing arts
- Overall contribution to athletics and team sports
- Overall contributions to the good of the local church through service and volunteering
- Overall contributions to the good to the local community through volunteering
- Generosity of time and personal comfort for the good of others in the community
- Love and appreciation of quality time with family
- Overall contributions to agriculture and the environment through conservation efforts

Applications will be reviewed by Helen Gregg and other surviving family members. Special consideration will be given to students that have significantly impacted their local community through living out the aforementioned benchmarks.

A scholarship award will be presented to one student at the time of graduation commencement in the amount of $1000. This amount shall be used toward tuition at a four-year college, with special consideration given to students with interest in agriculture and conservation.

The Ralph Gregg Memorial Scholarship is given as an annual gift by the surviving grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Ralph and Helen Gregg.
